Forwards the connected records.

It is seen from the records received that the old mantap built by the Taikere Paleyar was made use of by the villagers of Nagarahalli & Timmanahalli hamlets on the Dasara occasions without any restriction.

Subsequently a new mantap was constructed by Chikkaramegowda of Timmanahalli for the exclusive right & use of the people of this village. From that time the Nagarahalli villagers were celebrating their Utsavams in the old Mantap. On this ground the prayer of the Timmanahalli villagers opposed to mamool has been refused by the Dy Commr Kadur Dist.

24) The terms of the Dy Com's order 9.10.18 in the case are as follows; —

(1) that the records disclose that the old mantapam was built long ago by Tarikere Palleyar for the use of his family God, Nagahalli Anjaneya Devaroo;

(2) that the villagers of Nagarahalli and Himmanahalli were in the habit of taking their deities during the Dasara to the said Mantap celebrating their festivities by fixing separate Plantain Trees & nova common one for both, and that there was no restriction that the villagers of any particular hamlet should first celebrate the festivities.

(3) That to avoid friction between the two villages Chikvame gowda of Thimmanahalli constructed a separate mantap on the same spot, at his own cost, 15 years ago for the use of his village deity, and that since then the old and the new mantaps were being used by the Nagahalli & Thimmanahalli villagers respectively for celebrating their festivities, by fixing separate plantain trees; and

(4) That therefore the claim of Thimmanahalli people to certain exclusive rights in the old mantap is opposed to manool & cannot be granted, and that the order of 12-1-1918 that they should not take their god to the old mantap & that, with a view to prevent breach of peace, they should execute a Muchalika & obtain a license before celebrating the festivities, cannot be reconsidered.

27) The grounds urged by Chikkvame gowda and others in their appeal petition are noted below:—

(1) That the old mantap was constructed by their ancestors for conducting the Utsavam during Dasara, of the Rameswaradevaru by Thimmanahalli people, and that for the use of the deities of other villages two side Kattes or platforms were also built near the said mantap

(2) That when Chikkrame Gowda undertook to construct at his own cost another mantap Nagarahalli people protested on the ground that the old mantap was constructed by their ancestors in their Inam land, but that this contention was overruled, as it was held that the land was Sirkar land & not Inam.

(3) That since the new building came into existence, Rameswaradevaroo is being seated in the old & Malledevaroo in the new mantams & that the festivities are being conducted by fixing only one Pantam tree.

(4) That the finding that the old mantap was constructed by Tamilian Pallegars & that the old & new mantaps are being used by Nagarahalli & Thimmanahalli people respy by fixing separate Pantam trees for their festivities celebrations is not correct; and,

(5) That the Dy authorities have created a right — hitherto non-existent — in favour of Nagarahalli people, and that the order of the Dy Com requiring the villagers of Thimmanahalli to take out a licence is for conducting their festival is unjust & is prejudicial to their interests.

27) The Dy Com's finding that the old mantap was constructed by Tamilian Pallegars is based on the Tk Amildar's report of 2-12-17 which is again based on the statements of Nagarahalli & Harle villagers. This is however opposed to the view held by the Asst Com in his order of 13th March 1901 that the representation of Nagarahalli people to the ownership of the mantap could not be supported. There is at the same time nothing to prove that the mantap was constructed by the ancestors of Thimmanahalli villagers as contended in the appeal petition.

2) As regards the use of the two mantaps and the fixing of plantain trees, there is nothing to controvert the DC's finding that the old mantap is being used by the Nagarahalli villagers & the new one by the Thimmanahalli villagers by fixing separate plantain trees for their celebrations. The appellants however refer to a representation made by Nagarahalli people in 1900, in connection with the new mantap then under construction, that only one plantain tree should be used for the celebration, the use of two being considered ominous. Whatever may have been the practice prior to the construction of the new mantap, there is nothing, except the statement of Thimmanahalli people, to show that only one plantain tree is being fixed for all the celebrations even after the new mantap came into being.

3) Re the execution of Muchalika & the taking out of licence for conducting the celebrations, it is submitted that while the Taluk Amildar suggested that, to prevent breach of the peace, the people of both the hamlets may be required to execute the muchalika &c, the DC has ordered the same only in respect of the Thimmanahalli people, perhaps on the ground that they were responsible for the recent differences.

In this case the Amildar held an enquiry on the subject matter of the dispute between the parties & made a report. The H.C. accepted the finding of the Amildar and held that the old mantap was built by the Tamilian Pallavas for the use of Rajaraja Anjaneya Devaru, that Chikkarayanagowda of Thimmarajally constructed a new mantap for his village about 15 years ago, and that since then the old mantap was being used by the Rajarajally people & the new mantap by the Thimmarajally people. In the Court of the Devan to the Hon'ble the Maharaja of Mysore

Pet^n No. of 19/20.

The humble Petition of Chick Ramegowda & others of the village of Hariharakalli Amble Hobli, Chickanayakan Taluq & an follows:—

1. That an appeal against the order of the Deputy Commissioner Kedesa district restraining the Petrs from celebrating the Mahanavami Utsava in the ancient Mantap situated in S.No. 200 of Hariharakalli filed on 24.1.1919 is still pending disposal.
2. That there are two Mantaps close to each other, one ancient & built by the ancestors of Chick Ramegowda & another new one built by Chick Ramegowda himself.
3. That it has been an ancient Custom for the deities of the neighbouring villages to be brought in procession to the ancient Mantap on the Vijayadashami day.
4. That the Deputy Commr by his order under appeal, has restrained the Petrs from celebrating the Utsavam in the ancient Mantap in violation of the long standing rights of the Petrs and is requiring them to be taken for the use of the new Mantap both of which acts are irregular and contrary to Custom.

5. That there is no reason whatever for the people of Nagamalai to be permitted to celebrate their Utsavam in the Ancient Mantap which the same is denied to Pets.

6. That Pets beg to represent that the Dasara is approaching and as the appeal is not yet disposed of, they pray they may be permitted to celebrate the Utsavam under Police vigilance if necessary this year pending disposal of the appeal as regards their respective rights, in due Course.

7. That Pets are earnest in their prayer as there is a belief that the omission has been the cause of the epidemics & other fatalities in the village ever since the cessation of the celebration.
